Annual Conference

Attendance

There were 256 registered delegates at the Annual Conference session in Birmingham April 29-30, 1967. At the Sunday morning service there were 350 - 400 people present, for the concert by the Indian Springs School, and the communion service which followed.

Our deep appreciation is expressed to the pastor, Rev. S. Lawrence Johnson, and the congregation of Pilgrim Congregational Church, Birmingham, for the fine manner in which they served as hosts for this annual meeting. Our every need was anticipated and cared for in a most efficient manner.

The registration, the box lunch, the banquet, places for the discussion groups to meet, the breakfast for "Divinity Dames" hosted by Mrs. Johnson, the beautiful concert by the choir, the most inspiring communion service, the lovely church building itself and all its facilities, and the efficiency of the committees from Pilgrim and First Churches all contributed to make this a conference to be remembered. Our thanks go to all who assisted in making this possible.

and on many of its boards and committees through the years. He has served as pastor of United Congregational Christian Church in LaGrange, Ga., Noon Day, Forest Home, Bethany, Caver's Grove, Wadley, Truitt, Elder, Pisgah, and Rock Stand in Alabama.

He is at present pastor of New Hope (the mother church of the denomination in Alabama) and First Church, Roanoke. He has also served as city clerk of Roanoke for the past twenty years.

Mr. Sheppard is married to the former Pansie Mildred (Bobby) Adamson. They have two children, Aaron Emory, who is married to the former Mary Gena Lane of Roanoke; a daughter, Linda Ellen, who is married to Tommy Yarbrough of Roanoke; and four grandchildren.

The 175th Anniversary Of Midway Church

Historic Midway Church, located in Liberty County midway between Savannah and Darian, Georgia, is featured in the March issue of the Congregational Christian Historical Society Newsletter, as celebrating its 175th anniversary.

The background of the church may be traced to Puritan ancestors who, in a Congregational Church meeting in Plymouth, England, in 1630, decided to come to America. They took the long and hazardous voyage in the chartered ship "Mary and John" and, one hundred and forty in number, arrived in Massachusetts March 30, 1630. The settlement they established was named Dorchester, now the southern part of the City of Boston.

In the late 1690's settlers moved from Boston to a spot on the Ashley River, 18 miles from Charleston, organized a church and founded Dorchester, S. C. Toward the middle of the next century, some of the Congregationalists from Dorchester, S. C., migrated to Georgia and received the grant of a large tract of land south of Savannah. So began the Midway settlement. Two years later, 280 Congregationalists moved into the Midway district making it the southern stronghold of Congregationalism. In 1754 they built the first church on the present site. In 1772 the meeting house was burned by the British and

United Church Of South Montgomery

On March 23rd, Maundy Thursday, the First Congregational Church joined us in a Maundy Thursday service. It was followed by a period of fellowship. I feel that it was quite meaningful to all who participated.

The men of the United Church of South Montgomery entertained the men of the First Congregational Church and the Allied Officers from Ethiopia on April 25, 1967. Four men from the First Church, six Ethiopian Officers, and seven men from the United Church enjoyed charcoaled steaks. This was in response to a similar supper held earlier in the year by the men from the First Church. It is hoped that it will become a regular affair.

—John Martin, Pastor

in 1778 it was replaced by a new edifice. The history of the church shows that many famous people were members of this church, including four governors of Georgia: Button, Gwinnett, Richard Howley, Nathan Brownson, and Lyman Hall. Two of these were also signers of the Declaration of Independence, Gwinnett and Hall.

The cemetery is of interest, containing not less than 1,200 graves, with great names by the score.

At present there is no sign to identify the church with the Congregational fellowship, but we may justly claim that the Puritan spirit was largely responsible for the exciting history of the settlement. Located on U. S. 17, just below Savannah, a large historical marker stands by the road.

The Midway Church is not far from Dorchester Center, owned by the Southeast Conference, and where there is now located a new church served by one of our ministers, Rev. James Eaton. This church is also named Midway.

Senior Citizens Month

"Meeting the Challenge of the Later Years" is the theme for Senior Citizens Month — May, 1967, according to the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Administration on Aging, in cooperation with President's Council on Aging.

Plans Developing For General Synod Meeting

"Obedience to Christ — Personhood and Peace" will be the theme of the Sixth General Synod, to meet in Cincinnati from June 21 to June 29.

Dr. Fred S. Buschmeyer, Secretary of the United Church, has announced a tentative program that begins Wednesday afternoon with registration and a meeting of the Executive Council, whose chairman is the Rev. John W. Flucke, pastor of St. John's Church, San Bruno, California. The call to order will come at 10:00 a. m. Thursday with the prayer given by Dr. Ben M. Herbster, UCC president. Synod will adjourn the following Thursday afternoon.

Among the issues which Synod will be asked to discuss are population growth, poverty, racial justice, leisure, budget, youth, the church's mission and Christian unity. According to Dr. Buschmeyer, a new procedure will "help delegates get a clear impression of the needs of the whole church and the instrumentalities' recommendations for meeting them."

First President Herbster will describe the areas of need and persons of special competence will give their observations on individual issues. Then all delegates will meet in report committees to discuss and offer their own suggestions for modifying or implementing the instrumentalities' proposals, Dr. Buschmeyer explained.

A service recognizing the denomination's 10th anniversary and other historical observances will be held with the Rev. Ferdinand Schlingensiepen and the Rev. Nathanael M. Guptill as speakers. Fraternal greetings are expected to be brought from many groups, including the Catholic Church's Archbishop Alter of Cincinnati.

Moderator of Synod will be Dr. Hollis F. Price, president of LeMoyne College in Memphis, Tenn. Assistant Moderators are Mrs. Martin Burger and the Rev. George G. Parker.

Southeast Conference delegates to General Synod are: Rev. Frederick A. Meyer, Mr. Hubert Richter, and Mrs. Edward M. Brown. Conference staff members will attend and perhaps others.

Thrift Shop Project At New Hope Church, Clio

Bennette Teal Watson admires a beautiful lamp at the New Hope Church Thrift Shop.

The New Hope Congregational Church of Clio, Alabama, has for a project a thrift shop.

Thus far, this project has proved most successful, having been in operation for a little over a year.

One of the members has converted part of a heavy equipment shelter into a suitable location.

All the items are donations. All the money goes to the New Hope Church, minus a percent to Christian World Missions. Thus, it serves a two-fold purpose — the money goes for a good cause and the clothes are available at a low price.

The goal at the present is to help pay for a building and complete it for a parsonage.

Consecration Of Burial Ground For Anatomical Remains

The inter-faith consecration of a small burial ground for bodies used in the anatomical training of students at Vanderbilt and Meharry Medical Schools took place in a short ceremony on Monday, April 17th.

Dr. Jack Davies, chairman and professor of Anatomy at Vanderbilt, began and headed the project to procure a plot of ground for such a purpose when he joined the faculty of the medical school three years ago. He feels that the respectful burial of human remains used in medical training is proper and dignified. As far as Dr. Davies knows, Vanderbilt and Meharry are the only schools making such burial facilities.

Attending the short ceremony were clergy representatives of the various faiths — Roman Catholic, Episcopal, Methodist, and Jewish. Each clergyman participated in a part of the service using his particular religious ceremony. The procedure for actual burial has not been worked out yet, but it seems clear that presiding at the ceremony will be a minister of the person's faith. A plaque will be set up with the names of those buried.

Walter Graham Serves United Men And Junior College Association

Walter A. Graham, president of Southern Union State Junior College, was recently elected vice-president of the United Church Men of the National Council of Churches.

Mr. Graham is also the newly elected president of the Southern Association of Junior Colleges. This organization includes private, state-owned, and church-related or independent junior colleges.

Williams Chapel Church, Waycross, Georgia

The Quarterly Conference on April 3rd gave us some good reports which we wish to share with the Conference.

Our pastor, Elgie Lairsey, reported 15 new members for the first quarter of 1967 and 2 in April, 9 by letter and 8 by confession of faith. Our Sunday School superintendent reported an average attendance of 75 in the first quarter of 1967.

In 1963, Williams Chapel purchased two lots of land joining our present property to the rear of the church. The balance due this month was $118.20. We voted to pay this debt in full.

The Women's Fellowship has completed three projects for their missionary work:

1. Annual subscription of 12 copies each month of The Upper Room to service men in Vietnam.

2. Sent 2 large boxes of used clothing to the Thrift Shop at Piedmont College, Demorest, Ga.

3. Packed 2 boxes of quilt scraps for a missionary station in Mulberry Gap, Tenn.

The annual homecoming is planned for May 7th, and all are invited.

What Is This Gospel

We Would Communicate?

(Given by Dr. Fred S. Buschmeyer at Birmingham Annual Conference,
April 29)

With the coming of Jesus Christ, God sent His Son — the perfect one to be our example. With him came renewal of life. We are the people of God. All through the ages mankind has encountered difficulty keeping God's purpose relevant to the needs of men.

The revised version of the Bible has this message in invisible ink: "The difficulties man has encountered in keeping his personal and organized religion relevant to the purposes of God and the needs of His people."

What is the Gospel of God through Jesus Christ? In the cosmic content the good news is:

1. John 3:16. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life."

2. II Corinth. 5:17. "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation, the old has passed away, behold the new has come." We need to see the world and its relation to God. How many of us read the Word of God before we read the newspaper each day? We must see man in direct personal relationship with the God who created him, not through man's failures.

We need to learn to see again in our day the relationship between Jesus Christ and God on the one hand, and between Jesus Christ and ourselves on the other hand. God's people had lost their sense of a vital personal connection. Jesus came to renew that connection.

At a studio a program was just ready to go when someone stumbled and broke the power line. Someone picked up both ends and restored the connection. Power went through him and the message went out. This must happen if we are to communicate the Gospel to the world today.

We have a gospel of redemption for the whole world, not "God save me and mine." With divine conviction and joy we must let the whole world know that God's power is made available to all through Jesus Christ. He owns the whole wide world.

May He empower you, bless you, and guide you beyond anything you have ever dreamed through his power. Let us communicate the Good News to all the world.

In 1950 he was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Laymen's Fellowship, serving for 10 years. He serves as vice-president of Third District of National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees.

Valley District PF Rally

The Valley District Pilgrim Fellowship held its annual spring rally on April 2, 1967, at Elder Church in Dadeville, Alabama.

The theme for this one-day rally was "Worship." The day began at 9:30 with registration and was followed at 10:00 by the welcome of the host church. A response was given by the District president, Becky Maddox. A short devotional was presented by the Langdale Church, and singing by the entire group followed. At 10:30 there was a fifteen minute business session with a brief recess before the guest speaker, Rev. Warren Blankenhorn, spoke to the group on "Worship." Lunch was served and the rally reconvened at 1:00 for the program on "How Different Denominations Worship."

The following churches presented interesting talks on the theme: Elder — Catholic; Lanett — Jewish; Todd — Episcopal; Langdale — Lutheran; Bethel — Quakers; Oak Grove — Eastern Orthodox.

A delightful afternoon of fun-filled recreation was spent at Horseshoe Bend, and the rally was concluded immediately following vespers by the Oak Grove Church.

Getting In On The Act

Rev. and Mrs. William R. Winterbottom are really getting in on the act. From time to time, they appear in the various plays being produced by the Cumberland County Community Theater at Crossville, Tenn. Currently, Mrs. Winterbottom is starring as Veta Louise Simmons in the Broadway hit "Harvey" and her husband is the cabbie who could have picked you up at Penn. Station on your last trip to New York.

R. N. Pelot is a member of the Crossville Church and acts as the judge in the play. He is also president of the Playhouse Association.

Various members of the Crossville Church act in the plays and work behind the scenes.

Active in community activities, Mr. Winterbottom assisted in United Fund and served as a sponsor of the Cumberland County High School Forensic Club, which won high honors in national competition. Rev. Robert Helm of our Pleasant Hill Church also works with this group.

The churches of Cumberland County in Tennessee are sponsoring a county-wide Crusade July 9-23, 1967 at Cumberland County High School gymnasium. Speaker will be F. M. Dowell of Nashville. Music director will be Eddy Nicholson of Lubbock, Texas.

Council For Health And

Welfare Serves Large Group

Efforts of the Council for Health and Welfare, based on 1966 statistics, indicate that this arm of the ministry of the United Church of Christ, rather than being the smallest, is indeed one of the largest, if not the largest, single church-related program in the United Church.

The 604,075 individuals for whom care was provided during 1966 exceeds the church membership in any region of the United Church. OCWM giving for 1966 totaled $17,703,147 when both National and Conference are combined. This represents 28.1% of the $63,079,233 spent by the agencies for operating purposes, and when the $18,066,805 used in capital expenditures is added, the relative percentage to total OCWM giving slips to 21.8%.

National Basic Support Income/1967

1966 income/$10,805,162.00

Breakthrough/$1,000,000.00 increase over 1966 income.

Note: A year ago on March 31, 1966 National Basic Support Income was $1,058,885.00. Consequently the income this year at the end of March is an increase of $137,919.00.

Quarterly Report On National Basic Support

A similar chart to the one you see above will appear quarterly in our paper. It will indicate national progress toward Breakthrough.

Breakthrough has been described as "the signal for the United Church of Christ to go 'all out' into the actual world for God and man. It is also the cost Christ's people must pay to go."

In terms of dollars, the Breakthrough program calls for a $1,000,000 increase in giving by the churches in 1967 over 1966, and a further increase in 1968 over 1967, for the budgeted work of the Executive Council and the national instrumentalities.

For the Southeast Conference, we have pledged to increase our total giving to Our Christian World Mission from $47,623.92 to $53,750.00, and thereby increase our giving to national instrumentalities and their work around the world by $1,400.

The giving of your church to Basic Support for Our Christian World Mission will serve your Conference and count toward attaining nationally hoped for Breakthrough by the end of this year.

END "MICKEY MOUSE"

JOBS FOR WOMEN

The Rev. Mrs. Joan Bates Forsberg of the New Haven (Conn.) Wider City Parish calls for a drastic departure from traditional women's tasks in the church. Speaking at an interreligious conference at Albertus Magnus College, she said church women should stop "fooling around with the petty Mickey Mouse jobs given them in the past." Instead of sewing for the bazaar and cooking for the bake sale, she recommended tutoring children in the inner city, taking them to museums, befriending an unwed teenaged mother, studying legislation on education and drug addiction, learning about the faith . . . Baker Church

Sunday, April 9, was Youth Day at Good Hope Congregational Christian Church, Baker, Florida. Saturday night preceding this a Youth Banquet was given, with 30 people present. Games, songs, and a meal were enjoyed. The women of the church prepared a very delicious meal as a service to the group.

On Sunday morning the youth conducted all the services, acting as teachers, Sunday School superintendent, church clerk, and ushers. A visiting young boy who is a senior in high school brought the 11 o'clock message. He expects to enter the ministry.

Summer Reading And Study

Now is the time when thoughts turn to summer and plans are made for vacation trips and activities. In May and June many ministers and church people send to The Congregational Library lists of books which they wish to borrow under the special summer reading program. Any number of books may be kept all summer. Newer books in current demand are sent for the usual three weeks.

It is not too early to outline a profitable reading program for the more leisurely weeks ahead. You might want to plan sermons and other church work for the coming year, read biography for inspiration, delve into controversy of the "new theology" or the "new morality", study in preparation for writing a book or article to be published.

Send requests to The Congregational Library, 14 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. 02108. Give authors, titles, and book numbers if known. Books on a subject may be requested if specific titles are not available. Be sure to give your name, address, and zip code number. Return mailing labels furnished. Library rates may be used: four cents for first pound, one cent each additional pound. All books due back at the Library on September 11th.

Chattanooga, Pilgrim News

One of the chief items acted upon at the annual meeting was the decision to ask Mr. Warren Barr and his wife, Margaret, to assist in special activities on weekends from mid-July through the school year.

Mr. Barr is in his second year at Vanderbilt Divinity School. Mrs. Barr is teaching school. This will provide Pilgrim with additional leadership and Mr. Barr with an opportunity for field service and experience.
